The Drop That Wore Away the Stone

Did it by its regularity and persistence—not by its size or weight. The men who grow rich by saving—and thousands of men and women are doing that very thing—save on a regular persistent fixed schedule that they never allow themselves to vary. The amounts they save weekly are often small—but they come in every week and that counts up. Make your plan of saving and stick to it. The first step is to figure out what you can save out of your pay every week. The next step is to open an account with us (one dollar will do it). And all the rest of the steps consist in sticking to the plan. We help by paying 3 per cent interest on every dollar you deposit here, compounding the interest every six months.3% on Savings Interest Compounded

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

IN FINANCIAL TANGLE

Supreme Court Asked by the Laffer to Restrain Use of Funds in Joint Account.

The District Supreme Court was asked today to restrain the husband of a mother and daughter, whose funds have gone into the same bank account. Miss C. Louise Skidmore sought an injunction against her mother, Mary L. Skidmore, to prevent the latter drawing on her account in the National Savings and Trust Company. The financial institution is made a joint defendant with the mother.Miss Skidmore tells the court that in September, 1907, she obtained a clerical position paying $75 per month and has since been employed at a good salary.
Her mother asked her, she says, to permit the salary being deposited with the mother's account at the trust company, promising, it is alleged, to turn the funds over to the daughter on request.

Deposited to Mother's Credit.

The daughter alleges that she has given her mother $1,000, which she says has been deposited to her mother's credit, and with the interest allowed by the bank now amounts to more than $1,100.She asserts she has made repeated requests to her mother for the return of the money and has been refused.As the account is in the mother's name, Miss Skidmore seeks an injunction against Mrs. Skidmore and the bank to prevent the cashing of checks which would encroach on the portion of the funds claimed by the daughter.Attorney Andrew Wilson appears for the daughter.
